„A.C.A.S.A. – Complex Social Assistance for Asylum Seekers”

2020-2022

General objective of the project

The general objective of the project is to improve the situation of asylum seekers in Romania by offering information on their rights and obligations under the law, providing complementary material and social assistance and specialized services as well as other specialized services.

Budget line:

Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund

Reference number: FAMI/20.02.03.01

Through this project, you may benefit from the following services:

- Information on the counselling, assistance and complementary facilities granted, regarding the totality of your social and economic rights and legal obligations as an asylum seeker (different from those regarding the asylum procedure);
- Support in getting access to public services as regards: the labour force market, the educational system, the social insurances system, access to accommodation and cultural orientation;
- Effective material assistance granted to improve your living standard in Romania;
- Activities of orientation and adjustment to the Romanian society (Romanian language courses for children and adults, recreational and cultural activities, development of professional skills in order to adjust to the characteristics of the Romanian society, rules of cohabitation in accommodation centres as well as in society, etc.)

Are you an asylum seeker in Romania?

You have the following social rights and obligations:

1. Rights:

- a) You may participate to cultural adjustment activities;
- b) If you do not have the necessary means to provide for yourself, you may benefit, upon request, from the necessary assistance (such as food, maintenance and personal hygiene materials, transport fares) throughout the asylum procedure;
- c) If you do not have the necessary material means for your maintenance, you may be placed in a centre for procedures and accommodation for asylum seekers;
- d) If you have special needs (handicap, disabilities, etc.), you may benefit from accommodation and assistance adapted to your situation;
- e) If you suffer from acute or chronic diseases which represent an imminent danger to your life, you are entitled to receive free-of-charge primary medical assistance and emergency assistance in hospital, as well as from free-of-charge treatment through the national system of emergency medical assistance and professional first aid;
- f) You may be included in the public health national programmes for the prevention, surveillance and control of contagious diseases;
- g) If you have special needs (handicap, disabilities, etc.), you may receive adequate medical assistance;
- h) You may receive social assistance in accordance with the legislation in force;
- i) You may obtain access to the labour force market if your asylum procedure is pending in a court of law or if you have been in asylum procedure for 3 months and IGI have not issued a decision in this respect, and this delay occurred for reasons that you may not be held accountable for.
In such a case, you may benefit from labour force employment stimulation measures as well as from protection within the unemployment benefits scheme, under the same legal terms as for the Romanian citizens;
- j) If you are a minor, you benefit from the same protection offered under the law to Romanian minors in difficulty;
- k) If you are a minor, you benefit from a free-of-charge intensive Romanian language course meant to prepare you for getting enrolled in the national education system. At the end of the course, a commission assesses the level of your knowledge, including your Romanian language skills and decides consequently upon the school grade that that you are to be enrolled in.

Access to social rights and reception material conditions:

- a. You are entitled to benefit from social assistance measures, which you may be granted upon request.
- b. You are granted, upon request, food whose value amounts to RON 10.00/person/day, clothes whose cost amounts to RON 67/person/summer season and RON 100.00/person/winter season as well as other expenses of up to RON 6.00/person/day, representing expenses related to local transport, cultural services, press, expenses incurred in connection with repair and maintenance operations, and expenses related to one's personal hygiene, reimbursement of transport fares when travelling to appear in court.
- c. When the accommodation capacity of the centres for procedures and accommodation of asylum seekers is exceeded, the General Inspectorate for Immigrations may offer asylum seekers, within the limit of their available funds, a sum of money for them to rent a place to live (namely RON 450.00/person/month).
- d. If you do not comply with the interior order regulations of IGI Regional Centres for Procedures and Accommodation or if you do not abide by your legal obligations, the General Inspectorate for Immigrations may limit or withdraw the reception material conditions.

2. Obligations:

- a) You have the obligation to abide by the laws of the Romanian state as well as to comply with the measures decided by the Romanian authorities competent in asylum matters;
- b) You have the obligation to submit to the territorial offices of the Ministry of Interior, in writing, a motivated application for asylum, containing all the data indicated by the official where the request is filed, as well as the obligation to accept that your photograph and fingerprints be taken for the record. If you have not turned 14 yet, you will not be subjected to fingerprinting;
- c) You have the obligation to provide the competent authorities with real and complete information regarding your person and your asylum request;
- d) You have the obligation to submit all the documents you are in possession of and which are relevant regarding your personal situation;
- e) You have the obligation to hand in the document conferring you the right to cross the state border, and you will receive an asylum seeker temporary ID card (issued by IGI);
- f) You have the obligation to observe the progress of the procedure and to inform the General Inspectorate for Immigrations whenever you change your place of residence;
- g) You have the obligation to answer the requests made by Romanian officials with competence in asylum matters;

- h) You have the obligation to undergo the medical tests for which you have been scheduled, as well as to accept vaccination;
- i) When requested by the competent authorities, you have the obligation to accept to be body searched and that the objects you have upon you be searched as well.
- j) You have the obligation to leave the territory of Romania within 15 days counting from the moment when the asylum procedure was completed, if you have not been granted a form of international protection, except when your asylum request was rejected as it was deemed obviously ungrounded after it had been analysed in accelerated procedure, in which case you have to leave the Romanian territory as soon as the asylum procedure was completed.

According to the Interior Order Regulations of Regional Centres for Procedures and Accommodation for Asylum Seekers, in case of disciplinary misconduct, depending on how serious your violation is, you may be applied gradual sanctions, which can go as far as:

Suspension of the RON 6.00/person/day allowance representing expenses related to local transport, cultural services, press, maintenance and repair services and to one's personal hygiene, for a period ranging between one month and three months!

Temporary evacuation from the centre for 24 hours!
Temporary evacuation from the centre for 7 days!

FINAL evacuation from the centre!
